

Agricultural Adaptation Council (“AAC”)
Representative Authorization Agreement
(the “Agreement”)

APPLICANT	PROJECT TITLE	PROJECT NUMBER

The Applicant has advised the AAC that it has engaged the services of _____ (the “Representative”) to act on its behalf for the limited purpose of submitting an AAC funding application, which shall include all communications, written and verbal, submitted to the AAC from either the Applicant or the Representative during the term of this Agreement, including, but not limited to, the application documents, emails and background information provided (hereinafter the “Application”).

The Applicant hereby agrees that the AAC can:

- a) disclose to the Representative all information received by the AAC from the Applicant, or any third party, regarding and/or including the Application, unless the Applicant specifically requests in writing that such information should be treated by the AAC as confidential;
- b) contact the Representative directly for any information about the Applicant, or the Application, which the AAC, at its discretion, requires to assess the merits of the Application; and
- c) rely on information, representations and instructions provided by the Representative in determining the merits of the Application.

The Applicant acknowledges, and agrees, that the Representative will be subject to, and will comply with, all applicable AAC program guidelines.

Notwithstanding this Authorization, it is the practice of the AAC to copy the Applicant on electronic communications regarding the Application.

Term: This Agreement shall commence on the date a signed copy is received in the office of AAC. The Agreement shall terminate on the earliest of:

- a) the date that a written notice signed by the Applicant, withdrawing the Authorization and terminating this Agreement, is received at the office of the AAC; or
- b) the date provided on the written notice of the AAC board of directors decision regarding the Application, which will be emailed to the Applicant and copied to the Representative.

The Applicant may extend the term of this Agreement by sending the AAC written notice specifying the amended term of the Representative’s authorization.

By signing below, the Applicant agrees to the terms of the Agreement as stated herein.
